

TEAM CANADA VOLLEYBALL – Coach Application- Deadline February 28th,2025
u21 Assistant Coach

Overview:

Volleyball Canada seeks an assistant coach for the 2025 U21 Program, to work with Olivier Faucher with competitions scheduled in Costa Rica (July 20–28) and Indonesia (August 7–17). This role provides a valuable opportunity to gain experience as an Assistant Coach for the U21 Program. Ideal candidates are eager to join Team Canada's coach development pathway and bring extensive expertise to meet the demands of national-level coaching. While full-time coaching experience is highly valued, applications are open to all qualified individuals committed to developing Team Canada's future stars.

Program Goals:

U21 Program identifies, selects, and trains athletes with future National Team potential. This program includes athletes that have been a part of the National Team athlete pathway, aligning their technical and tactical development with the Women's National Team (WNT) Program. For these two competitions the team will consist of athletes born in 2005 or later.

Key Dates:

- Training Camp: July 12-19, location TBD
- Norceca Competition: July 20-28 Costa Rica
- FIVB World's: August 7-17 Indonesia

Desired Qualifications:

- Experience coaching at high-performance or elite levels
- Proven understanding of volleyball tactics, systems, and the technical aspects of the sport
- Demonstrates ability to lead athletes to achieve high-level performance, including developing training programs that maximize individual and team potential.
- Current Full-time coaching experience will be highly regarded
- Previous involvement with Volleyball Canada programs, including NEP PD program, is an asset

Responsibilities:

Assistant Coaches: Support During Training & Competition (1 position)

- Collaborate with the Head Coach in planning, strategy development, and practice execution.
- Support the alignment of all activities with the WNT philosophy under the guidance of the Head Coach.
- Assist in conducting training sessions and providing feedback to players.
- Contribute to game preparation
- Ensure the readiness and maintenance of equipment (e.g., volleyballs, tripods, cameras) for all training and competition activities.

Please fill out this Formstack if you are interested

