

PRIVACY POLICY

Definitions

1. These terms will have these meanings in this Policy:
 - a) Individual - Registered participants, as defined in the Volleyball Canada Bylaws, including, but not limited to, athletes, coaches, officials, volunteers, directors, officers, team management, health care and other staff.
 - b) Volleyball Canada Representatives - All Individuals employed by Volleyball Canada and Volleyball Canada Directors, Officers, Committee Members, Officials, and other Individuals who are decision-makers within Volleyball Canada.
 - c) Provincial Sport Organizations (PSO) – For the purpose of this Policy, Provincial Sport Organizations refer to the provincial governing bodies for volleyball in Canada.
 - d) Personal Information - Personal information is information about an identifiable individual and could include for example, the name, date of birth, home address and phone number, personal email address, marital status, credit card information or other personal information about such identifiable individual.
 - e) The Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA) - the Federal privacy law for private-sector organizations which sets out the ground rules for how businesses must handle personal information in the course of commercial activity.

Policy Statement

2. Volleyball Canada is committed to protecting the privacy of Individuals who use its services, and/or participate in its programs and events.

Purpose

3. The purpose of this Policy is to ensure consistency in practices and procedures in administering Volleyball Canada's Privacy Policy, and to enhance effective application in protecting the privacy of Individuals who may use its services, and/or participate in its programs and events.
4. The Policy will assist in the effective protection and management of personal information by identifying, assessing, monitoring and mitigating privacy risks in government programs and activities involving the collection, retention, use, disclosure and disposal of personal information.

Scope and Application

5. This Policy applies to personal information of Individuals who may disclose personal information to Volleyball Canada or use Volleyball Canada services, and/or participate in its programs and events.
6. Volleyball Canada will comply with PIPEDA and comparable provincial legislation as applicable.
7. Provincial Sport Organizations in Canada (PSOs) are subsidiaries of Volleyball Canada for reporting purposes under this Policy. If Volleyball Canada cannot ascertain consent directly and because PSOs have a more direct relationship with members, PSOs, through their clubs, shall obtain the consent of members to collect, and disclose to Volleyball Canada, personal information solely for the purposes identified in this Policy.

8. The Chief Executive Officer has been appointed as Privacy Officer for Volleyball Canada. The Privacy Officer may delegate day-to-day responsibility for administration of this Policy to other employees but the Privacy Officer remains accountable for Volleyball Canada's handling of personal information.

Provisions

9. Volleyball Canada is responsible for all personal information under its custody or control, including information that it may transfer to a third party for processing in order to provide Volleyball Canada services and programs.
10. Volleyball Canada shall endeavour to maintain appropriate procedural and technological measures and storage facilities to prevent any unauthorized use or disclosure of an Individual's personal information.
11. Volleyball Canada will not sell, share, or rent an Individual's information to others in ways different from what is disclosed in this statement without the consent of the user.
12. Volleyball Canada will obtain an Individual's express consent before using or disclosing personal information for any purposes not identified in this Privacy Policy.
13. Consent to store personal information can be provided electronically or it can be implied where the purpose for collecting using or disclosing an Individual's personal information would be considered obvious. Consent may be implied where Volleyball Canada provides notice and a reasonable opportunity to opt-in/opt-out of an Individual's personal information being used in accordance with this Privacy Policy.
14. Some of the purposes for which Volleyball Canada may collect, use and disclose an Individual's personal information include:

15. Data collected may be transferred to, and/or stored at, a destination outside Canada for processing by third-party service providers contracted Volleyball Canada. If an Individual submits personal information, they specifically consent by doing so to such transfer, storing or processing. Volleyball Canada will take reasonable steps to ensure data is treated securely and in accordance with this Privacy Policy.
16. Volleyball Canada will retain personal information only as long as necessary to fulfill the identified purposes or a legal or business purpose in accordance with this Privacy Policy.
17. Volleyball Canada is committed to meeting the requirements of Canada's Privacy Information and Anti-Spam Legislation, including through any commercial electronic messages sent by Volleyball Canada. An Individual may "unsubscribe" from receiving communications from Volleyball Canada at any time and will be removed from its database.
18. Withdrawal of consent for the use of personal information may be forwarded in writing to the PSO and/or the National Registrar/Policy Officer as applicable. Such a withdrawal however, may require the cancellation of registration and suspension of activities with the Club, PSO and Volleyball Canada.

Communications

19. Volleyball Canada will communicate this Policy on its website and to Volleyball Canada Representatives.

20. Any questions or concerns regarding the collection, use and disclosure of personal information or about this Privacy Policy, may contact Volleyball Canada at: info@volleyball.ca.^[SLSG1]

Review

21. This Policy will be reviewed at least every two years or as decided by the Chief Executive Officer and/or the Volleyball Canada Board of Directors.

22. This Policy will next be reviewed in April 2020.

Approval

23. This Policy was approved by the Volleyball Canada Board of Directors on June 10, 2018.
